

BE RE-ORGANIZED.

Lamont Turning
the War Department.

Washington, June 30.—The re-organization of the War department ordered by Secretary Taft, which is the result of a study of the various systems of the department, goes into effect at midnight. The sweeping changes of the secretary, which will reduce the force of the department from 2800 to less than 1200, have caused widespread excitement and consternation throughout the bureau. Almost all the bureau system that has been in vogue in the past thirty years has been radically modified, and in addition the great saving in clerical force is expected to result, a number of army officers are ordered and ordered to rejoin their regiments. There are now eleven assistant adjutants general, five assistants each to the general and the quarter-master general, and the same number of the chief of ordnance, and all other bureaus have various assistants. The new order permits one assistant to each chief, and under special circumstances an officer may be detailed for duty; but all the others must do so must the clerks that have been needed to carry out the application upon duplication of the tape system that is said to be the system of correspondence is changed, by which about of the communications which reach the department will neither reply nor acknowledgment. The voluminous annual will hereafter be confined to get narratives, and no one in the department will hereafter write or engage in any literary without special permission. Books, except those necessary for keeping accounts with the War Department, are abolished, the card index substituted in place of revising or modifying regulations without the War Department's order is discontinued, all bureau orders are made official instead of signature.

A Million in Checks.

Waukegan, Wis., June 30.—An aggregate of one million dollars are going out today in the form of the Northern Pacific Railroad. On Monday another million will go out. This represents the interest on the first mortgage bonds, which is payable Monday. There would have been a default in the interest had the receivers been successful in getting a loan of one million dollars at low interest. This will be out of the earnings of the road for the next few months.

REMARKABLE RECEPTION

Accorded to the Future Rulers of Old England

London, June 30.—The Prince and Princess of Wales were accorded a remarkable reception today, when they made a state procession through the city, preparatory to the formal opening of the new bridge across the Thames at the Tower of London. Business was largely suspended and the populace of the four sections of the city turned out to a total of half a million. The carriage containing the future king and queen consort was escorted by the First and Second Life Guards and by the Royal Horse Guards, the latter regiment having been brought down from Windsor for the occasion. The route was from Marlborough House through the Strand, Elef street, Ludgate Hill, Cheapside, King William street to the Tower. Here the royal party was received by Lord Mayor Tyler, Sir Stewart Knill, Sir Andrew Lusk, Sir Joseph Savory, Sir Charles Hall, the recorder of the city of London, Sir William J. R. Cotton and other representatives of the corporation. The Lord mayor presented a loyal address to which the prince made a brief response, and then formally declared the bridge dedicated to the public. Five thousand guests of the corporation occupied seats upon the grand stand, but no dinner or other entertainment was served. The royal party returned to Westminster bridge by water and was thence driven to Marlborough. The Prince and Princess were greatly pleased over the remarkable enthusiasm with which they were greeted by the masses.

HEARNE HAPPENINGS.

A Burglarious Gang Broken

Into.—The Marsha. Married.

Hearne, June 29.—For several months past the citizens of this place have been terribly annoyed and harassed by burglars and attempts at burglary. There has been a number of entries into private residences by the burglars, and costly articles obtained. But of late it looks as if it is going to be broken up. Marshal Griffin arrested one or two darkeys, who confessed and implicated about four or five others.

They are all in the county jail—except one or two, who gave bond—awaiting the justice that is in store for them.

Rain is badly needed in this section, but no serious damage has been done by the drouth to the growing crops as yet.

On Wednesday night of last week the auditorium of the Methodist Episcopal church was crowded to witness the marriage of Mr. T. P.

Griffin and Miss Lula Shaw. The bride is a most amiable and accomplished young lady of Hearne. The groom is our efficient city marshal and a man who holds the highest confidence and respect of all who know him. There were many cost-
